WORKFORCE TRAINING & TRANSITIONAL HOUSING IN ONE PROGRAM!

St. Joseph the Worker is offering a unique 120-day pathway to long-term employment and housing! Clients will participate in four unpaid classroom days of life skills and hands-on training to be a commercial painter. Following this, clients can get hired making $18/hour and gain a pay raise to $20/hour after 90 days.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Be housing insecure
- Willing to participate in life skills courses
- No open evictions
- No violent felonies
- Reliable transportation
- Desire to get into commercial painting
- Willing to save 70% of income

Once clients receive their first paycheck, they will save 70% of their income to save $4,500 to secure their own apartment.
